

ACCESSIBILITY

BY ROAD

Getting to Denmark is easy. Denmark is a peninsula in Northern Europe, which means you can go by car or train from any of the European countries. Denmark has an extensive transport network of train, bus and roads and for groups of delegates coming from across mainland Europe, making arrangements for group travel by car, minibus, coach or train can be a more cost effective and environmentally friendly option.

BY TRAIN

The Danish railway system is clean, friendly, safe, and efficient and routes connecting Aarhus to Copenhagen run frequently every hour. Aarhus is mainly connected to Europe by a railway hub in Hamburg, reached within four hours. From here you will find connections to larger European cities and within 14 hours you can reach Aarhus by train from a great part of Europe - Munich, Amsterdam, Brussels, Frankfurt, Prague, Paris, Berlin, and Vienna.

BY AIR

Aarhus is well connected by air with two nearby airports, Billund and Aarhus, connected to the main airport hubs in Europe. There are direct train connections to Copenhagen Airport and Aalborg Airport.
